SPECIAL NOTICE.—TO THE PATRONS OF THE Telegraph.—The offices of the National Line, formerly No. 2 Wall street, and of the New York and New Eagland Union Line, formerly No. 2 Wall street and No. 5 Hanover street, have been removed to No. 23 Wall street, directly opposite the Castom House.

THE WAY OBSTRUCTIONS IN THE STREETS ARE removed, and Corporation ordinances enforced.—During the past year a number of sheds, shantes or buildings, have been put up in Catharine slip and South street, on ground not appropriated to Catharine Market, but belonging to the public, it direct violation of the statute. Complaints have been made to the proper authorities, who have repeatedly promised to take immediate measures to cause the obstructions to be removed; orders for their removal have been issued and printed; notices have been put upon the buildings, ordering them to be taken down by a certain day. They are, however, there yet, and likely to remain another year, the law, the wishes and the interests of the tax payers in the neighborhood of the market, to the courtrary notwithstanding. The office, or duty of an informer or complainant is neither agreeable nor profitable, and if those officers whose duty it is, and who receive a good salary for the performances would display half the real and energy in their situations, the sufferings of the people would not be quite so intolerable.
